The first of the series of entertainments given under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. in Irwin's Opera House, Nov. 7th, was a grand success from every point of view. The house was crowded practically all the reserved seats having been sold. So far as the writer has been able to ascertain everyone was highly pleased with the entertainment, and expressed a hope that we would be able to get them here again sometime in the near future.

The next Entertainment will be the Hawthorne Musical Club Nov. 20th, which comes very highly recommended and promises to be equal if not superior to the other. There are a few good reserved seats left and those who enjoy real genuine fun and high-class entertainment would do well to procure them at once. Enquire of C. P. Irwin at Irwin's Store.

THE DRYS WIN.

Woodstock Will Take Its Place Among the Dry Towns.

The contest over the local option election before Judge Harrison, of the Circuit Court excited much interest. The drys endeavored to dispose of the case by demurrer, but the demurrer was overruled by the court, and the case came up on its merits, on Tuesday morning. The drys had carried the election by one majority.

One dry vote was thrown out because the party voting was not a legal resident of the town, and one wet vote was thrown out, because the voter had not paid his capitation tax for the year 1894. He had not been assessed that year and was under the impression that he had paid all the taxes against him.

This left the result the same as declared by the Judges of Election, one majority for the drys. Several other votes were contested but there was not sufficient evidence to prove upon which side the parties had voted. The Valley will be dry from Winchester to Harrisonburg and Shenandoah will now take its place among the dry counties.

The order closing the bars will not be entered until the court finally adjourns, which may be not less than ten days from this time. It will give the saloon keepers time to close out their stock.

CORNERSTONE IS LAID AT ACADEMY.

The cornerstone of the new assembly hall and dormitory at Massanutten Academy, of this place, was laid Tuesday afternoon, the actual laying of the stone being performed by Rev. Dr. J. A. Hoffheins, of Martinsburg, Va., in connection with which appropriate exercises were held. The prayer was made by Rev. N. H. Skyles, of Winchester, participated in the exercises, which were witnessed by a large crowd of people from all sections of the Valley.

The new building will be 58x90 feet, three stories, and complete in modern appointments and comforts. It will be built of brick and Cleveland sandstone on an excellent location, and will be one of the finest buildings of the kind in the Shenandoah Valley.

A large chorus under the direction of Prof. Bolger, rendered two very fine anthems. The Academic procession was formed in front of the main building and marched to the foundation of the new building where the exercises were held.

Rev. Dr. J. Spangler Kieffer, of Hagstrawton, one of the most eminent divines in the Reformed church, delivered the address at the laying of the cornerstone.

RELIGIOUS NOTICES.

The offering taken up will be sent to the town treasurer for the poor of the town.

One request—Cannot all the stores and offices close for the hour of service?

The Rev. W. J. D. Scherer will be our preacher. On behalf of the Ministers Association

P. D. STEPHENTON, Sec.

Concville Precinct Thrown Out.

The commissioners of election threw out the vote at Concville precinct, because the election officers had not been sworn. The result of this action is that J. H. Hepper is elected Supervisor instead of Jos. E. Harpine, and N. P. Ryan is elected Justice of Peace instead of Abraham Dodson.

The decision of the Commissioner of Elections will be contested in the Circuit Court.

To our friends:

The Hotels Holtzman and Geary will continue to do business at the old stands. The service will be kept up to the high standard of the past. Meals will be served to County people, only, at 35 cents. Thanking our friends and the public for past patronage and soliciting your future trade, we are,

Respectfully,

DEATH OF MRS. L. A. ORNDORFF.

Mrs. Caddie Orndorff, wife of Mr. Emanuel A. Orndorff died very suddenly, last Saturday morning. Mr. Orndorff had left his wife but a few minutes before her death, when she was apparently in her usual health. She was washing the porch, at her residence, when she dropped dead. It is supposed that her death was caused by heart disease. When discovered, she was dead. Her husband who was employed in the store of Mrs. J. L. Shaffer & Co. was at once notified and from hurrying home found his wife, from whom he had parted but a few minutes before, in the cold embrace of death.

Mrs. Orndorff was a daughter of the late Capt. J. B. and Mrs. Hannah Dice Mooman, of Pendleton county, Va., and was born in that county December 13, 1853. She lost both parents when she was a child and at the age of six years she became a member of the family of her uncle, the late Dr. John D. Johnson, of Franklin, Va., in whose household she was reared. Six years ago, upon her marriage to Mr. Orndorff she became a resident of Monterey, Va., which remained her home until she and her husband removed to this place last June.

Mrs. Orndorff was a woman of much usefulness in every community in which she ever lived and was held in high esteem by a wide circle of acquaintances. He life was that of a consistent Christian and she had been a zealous member of the Methodist church from her childhood.

Mrs. Orndorff, is survived by three brothers—Dr. Frederick Mooman, of Franklin, Va.; John H. Mooman, Charlottesville; and Walter S. Mooman, Indiana; and two sisters—Mrs. Milton Swank, of Rockbridge county; and Mrs. George Wisman, of Raleigh, N. C.

Her funeral was from the Methodist church and was conducted by her Pastor, Rev. H. M. Cantor, assisted by Revs. T. G. Nevitt, of Edinburg and J. D. Hamaker, of Strasburg, after which the body was buried in Massanutten cemetery.

Among the relatives at the funeral were her brothers, Dr. Frederick Mooman, of Franklin, W. Va., and Mr. Jno. H. Mooman, of Charlottesville; and Mr. and Mrs. Sam'l B. Johnson, of Franklin, W. Va., Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mooman, of Keyser, W. Va., Mrs. George Wisman, of Raleigh, N. C., Mrs. Milton Swank and daughter, Miss Lelia, of Lexington, Va., Mrs. I. H. Trimble and daughter, Miss Maude, of Monterey, Va., Rev. and T. G. Nevitt, Mrs. J. E. Mantz and Miss Hockman, of Edinburg, Mrs. Jack Miller and son, of Strasburg, Mr. and Mrs. David Peer and children, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Myers and children and Mrs. John Peer, of Staunton.

"Mrs. Moses Biller Dead."

Mrs. Moses Biller died Monday evening at her home on Mill Creek, near Morning Star Church, in this county. Her death was due to the debility that accompanies old age. Surviving are her husband and a number of children. Mrs. Biller was a member of the Baptist church.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning from Morning Star Church. Rev. Perry Shaver, of Quicksburg, will conduct the services.

615 SEEDS IN HORSEY & ATWELL'S PUMKIN.

The large pumpkin which has been on display in Horsey & Atwell's clothing store window for the past month, and which the firm offered a prize of $5.00 to the person guessing the nearest number of seed in it, was opened Thursday and the seeds were counted by Capt. G. W. Koontz, Mayor M. E. Stickley, of this place, and Mr. B. S. Grim, of Cincinnati, Ohio. Mr. S. E. Rittenour, of Powell's Fort and Mrs. P. W. Bowers, of White Post, Clarke county, guessed the exact number, 615 and the prize was divided between them.

Woodstock, Nov. 14, 1907.

"We the undersigned Judges of the 'Pumpkin Contest' do hereby certify that the said pumpkin in question contained 615 perfect seeds and that Mrs. P. W. Bowers and S. E. Rittenour both guessed the same number which was 615 and the judges hereby award the prize to both above named parties to be equally divided."

All of the Candidates at the late election should remember that, whether successful or not, they are required under heavy penalty, to file with the County Clerk within thirty days from the day of election, a detailed statement of all sums of money contributed, expended or promised by them to secure their election and this statement must be supported by the following oath:

"I do solemnly swear that the statement herein filed embraces all money spent by me, or in my behalf, with my knowledge and consent, by my adherents and friends; that I have neither directly nor indirectly arranged, encouraged nor connived at the spending of any money other than as shown in my said statement; that I have not repaid any money so spent or claimed to have been so spent, and that I will not do so, and that I have not violated any of the provisions of Chapter 98 of the Acts of Assembly of Virginia of 1902-3, in letter or in spirit. So help me God."

The clerk is forbidden to issue certificates of election until the above is complied with.

THE MONEY QUESTION

THIS IS THE QUESTION—whether it is better to keep your money in a drawer or safe and dole it out in payments of accounts and bills or to bank it and pay by check? There can be but one answer to this—bank it, and check it out.
